Please introduce yourself in a short blurb that can be shared with other participants. If you like, include links to previous work.

David Quang Pham (he/they) is a musical theater science communicator who writes science musicals. As a Vietnamese American scientist, Eastern fables and modern science inform his stories. His musicals include the universal musical ELLIPSES, a story that stars the Galaxy family and their dog Gravity as they face the Big Bang, and the plant-based musical TURNOVER: A NEW LEAF, a story that follows a couple queer children as they uproot their families' green card. After obtaining an astrophysics degree at Michigan State University, he studied playwriting as a Working Title Playwrights apprentice in Atlanta and Playwrights Foundation fellow in San Francisco. His moonbase is in Washington Heights. His earth is Wyoming, Michigan. Be up to lightspeed at sciencetheatre.us and @sciencetheatre.
