PLOT SUMMARY

Radiant is a single parent proudly raising their child Ela. They had a marital fallout when their former spouse Nuclear left them for a mistress overseas. So, they estranged Nuclear's side of the family, much to Ela's objection. However, relationships change when Ela's cousin Mech has a mental health crisis and drops out of college. A LIVING interrogates whether life has a purpose or that we are here to be alive, and what makes us valid in our humanness.

Nuclear leaves behind Radiant and Ela ("Nuclear Family Fallout").

A LIVING is a musical about where you put your time and energy/family.
