Note on how Ellipses relates to EW (Extinct in the Wild) and Queer Ancestry

Ellipses is a nonbinary cosmic creation myth that confronts historical and generational trauma in which EW (Extinct in the Wild) is also confronting as well on an Earthly level. Ellipses and EW mix classical, rock, and Vietnamese folk elements in the score.

“Turnover: A New Leaf”

Note on how Turnover: A New Leaf relates to EW (Extinct in the Wild) and Queer Ancestry

Turnover: A New Leaf is a queer coming-of-age story that follows a preteen boy who befriends a nonbinary free-spirited teen and grows to accept his queer self, despite his overprotective immigrant mother. EW (Extinct in the Wild) is a relative story about the last human being who befriends the second last human being and develops a queer platonic relationship, despite the overseeing alien’s hope for them to repopulate. Turnover and EW mix classical, rock, and Vietnamese folk elements in the score.
